efforts, in schools and in minor hockey. On game nights, hundreds of fans will be drawn to the civic center and neighboring businesses on both sides of the border. A group of hockey supporters and business people from around the county have formed the Charlotte County Hockey Club, with Hyslop as president and Bob Henehy of St. Stephen and Geoff Cunningham of Pennfield as vice presidents. The group formed with the goal of bringing a new Junior A team to the region. At the top of the group's to-do list is signing up advertisers and sponsors to ensure the team has a solid economic foundation. "We're going to be asking for support from all around our region. If we're going to make this happen, we have to make it happen together," Hyslop says. Two team fundraisers are coming up — a golf tournament at the St. Croix Country Club in Calais on Saturday, July 27, and a raffle, part of the 40th International Welcome Festival, at the Border Arena on Saturday, August 3.

Family Book Scholarship, the Churchill Family Scholarship, Diane Barnes, the WCCC Student Senate, all of Calais; and F. Marjorie Hedlund Scholarship. At the tournament, the golfer who hits a hole-in-one on the first hole will win a 2004 Chevrolet Impala. "We are really excited about being the sponsor again for Washington Community College," says tournament co-sponsor Ian Pratt of the Chevrolet-Olds-Buick-Pontiac-Geo of Calais. In addition to the car, every participant who test drives a new car at the tournament will receive a pair of Maui Jim sunglasses. The other co-sponsor is the St. Croix Country Club. In addition to the hole-in-one on the first hole prize are other hole-in-one prizes including a Fairmount golf vacation, a pair of Maui Jim sunglasses and a $100 golf clothing shopping spree. Two years ago, former WCCC President Joyce Hedlund came up with the idea of the Direct-to-Student Scholarship Program as part of the golf tournament. Funds raised at the tournament will support the scholarship program.

A popular part of the scholarship program allows donors to create their scholarship in their name, their business' name or in the name or memory of a loved one. Donors choose the program of studies and
