Over 450 High School Runners Compete in Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Cross Country Championships

Team Titles and Individual All-Conference Selections Determined Based on Today's Results

AUGUSTA – Four hundred and eighty five athletes from 26 area schools competed in the Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference cross country championships held at Cony High School on Saturday, October 13 in Augusta. Meet results determined team champions and all-conference selections in Class A and Class B with the top seven individuals in each division earning first team All-Conference honors and runners eight through fourteen earning second team honors.

Listed below are the top three teams in each class and first and second team All-Conference selections. Additional All-Conference selections may be made later this week at a meeting of all KVAC coaches, but the individuals listed below are confirmed selections based on results from today's meet. Complete results may be found at <http://www.sub5.com/youth-pages/cross-country/2018-xc-results/>.
